

JOHN GLENN SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Rebecca Bradley, from Westerville, Ohio, is a junior pursuing a major in international studies and a minor in French. Rebecca works as a student assistant at the OSU Medical Center and is a member of the OSU Undergraduate Student Government, where she has served as a first year intern and the associate director of marketing. During the past two summers, Rebecca has participated in the Buck-I-Serv Alternative Breaks Program, through which she has built homes with Habitat for Humanity and volunteered at the FurKids animal shelter in Atlanta, Georgia. She is interning with the ENOUGH! Project at the Center for American Progress while in Washington.

Jessica DiCerbo, from Hopewell Junction, New York, is a junior majoring in environmental policy and management, with a minor in Italian. In 2010, Jessica worked as a Climate Campaign Intern for the Environmental Defense Fund, representing EDF through online networking. She has also worked as a Curriculum Student Researcher for the Institute for Energy and the Environment. At Ohio State, Jessica is a tour guide for University Ambassadors, and a member of the Buckeye Leadership League. In Washington, she is interning with the Environmental Protection Agency's Design for the Environment program.

Meghan Gannon, from Findlay, Ohio, is a senior earning a degree in political science. Since October of 2008, she has worked as a Student Office Assistant for the Ohio State University Honors Collegium. Meghan has interned in the Ohio office of U.S. Senator Sherrod Brown and County Commissioner John O'Grady, and Washington office of Representative John Boccieri. She is a member of the OSU Mount Leadership Society and the Student-Alumni Council, and volunteers with the Ohio Center for Law Related Education. Meghan is interning with CBS News' Washington Unplugged and the Center for Civic Education, in Washington.

Douglas Hochberg, from Cleveland, Ohio, is a junior working towards a degree in political science. Over the summer, he completed an internship with OrangeBoy, Inc, aiding in the drafting of reports for the Ohio Department of Development, and the library and hospital industries. Doug is a member of the John Glenn Civic Leadership Council and was a presidential candidate for the Undergraduate Student Government at OSU. In Washington, Doug is interning with The Council of State Governments.

Mark Hudak, from Mansfield, Ohio, is a senior majoring in international studies, with a specialization in security and intelligence. He spent the summer in North Carolina, where he worked for Ocean Atlantic Rentals in Kill Devil Hills. He has worked for the Parks Department of Lexington, OH, assisting with maintenance and upkeep of several community parks. In Washington, Mark is interning in the Office of Representative Steve Austria \(OH-7\).

John (Jay) Hunter, from Allison Park, Pennsylvania, is a senior majoring in international studies, with a focus on security and intelligence; he is also pursuing a minor in Slavic Languages and Literature. Jay has studied abroad in London and Jerusalem, and can speak conversational Bosnian, Croatian, and Serbian. He has interned in the office of Sen. Robert Casey in Pennsylvania, and with Community Refugee and Immigration Services in Columbus, OH, where he assisted an ESOL classroom instructor. Jay serves as fundraising chair in the Phi Sigma Pi Honors Fraternity. In Washington, he is interning with The German Marshall Fund of the United States.

Kelsey Poole, from Cincinnati, Ohio, is a senior working towards a double major in international studies and economics. She has served as an intern with the Columbus Chapter of the United Nations Association of the U.S., writing articles for the chapter's monthly newsletter and working with vendors in the annual Columbus International Festival. Kelsey has worked as a peer advisor and office assistant in the Office of International Affairs at OSU. She is a Scholars Ambassador for the Honors and Scholars Department and a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. Kelsey is interning with the Institute for International Education.

Joseph Sadek, from Cleveland, Ohio, is a junior earning a degree in international relations, with a minor in French. Joseph works for OSU's Office of Student Life at the Recreational and Physical Activities Center. He is the treasurer for the OSU chapter of the Organization of Arab Students. Joe is the co-founder and vice president of Working Internationally to Serve and Educate (W.I.S.E.), through which he has participated in a tutoring program at 5th Avenue Elementary School, a Benefit Concert for Humanitarian Aid, and a Food Drive for Haiti. In Washington, Joe is interning with the New America Foundation.

Bethany Simms, from Ashville, Ohio, is a senior pursuing a double major in history and anthropology. In 2010, Bethany interned with the Columbus Literacy Council, where she prepared briefings and assisted in ESOL classes. She has worked at the Wexner Center for the Arts on campus and has volunteered with the Governor's Institute for Creativity and Innovation in Education, Relay4Life, and the SAIL Leadership Conference. Bethany is a member of Phi Alpha Theta. She is interning with International Student Conferences, while in Washington.

Jake Young, from Rocky River, Ohio, is earning a major in political science. In the summer of 2010, Jake served as an intern for the Secretary of the Senate in Washington, D.C. He has previously served as an intern in the Ohio House of Representatives and as a page in the U.S. Senate. Jake has served as president, and participant, of A Rocket Launch for International Student Satellites (ARLISS), a program sponsored by the NASA Glenn Research Center in Cleveland. He is a cadet in the Army ROTC Buckeye Battalion and an OSU Politics, Society, and Law (PSL) Scholar. In Washington, Jake is interning with the U.S. Senate Veterans' Affairs Committee.